

On the occasion of International Human Rights Day, a seminar was held today in District Court Complex, Moominabad Batamaloo, Srinagar. The topic for discussion was “The Right to Self-Determination and Human Rights Violations in Kashmir – Post HRC Report”.

The proceedings of the seminar were conducted by Mr. Adil Asimi, Joint Secretary of the Bar Association and the proceedings were started with the recitation of beautiful verses from the Holy Qur’an by Arshad Andrabi, Advocate.

While introducing the topic, Adil Asimi, the Joint Secretary of the Bar Association stated that once again the Bar Association is observing the International Human Rights Day, in the background of Human Rights Violations that are taking place in the State of J&K, to suppress the demand of the exercise of right to self-determination and the effect of the recent report of Human Rights Council published on 14.06.2018 regarding Human Rights Violations, which are taking place in the State.

Arshad Andrabi, Advocate, while giving the background of the dispute, stated that it was India, which went to United Nations for the resolution of the dispute and on 05.01.1949 a resolution, which is the basic document was passed regarding the
